

Dear Parents/Carers

Peel Hall will be celebrating World Book Day on the 4th March this year.

As the children (and staff) really enjoy dressing up, this year the theme is Vocabulary ! This means that each child could come dressed as a word (see examples below).

On World Book Day, we will have a vocabulary parade so the children can show off their costumes.

Thank you for your continued support.