Safer Internet Day is celebrated across the world in over 170 countries.

With thousands of children joining in across the UK.

It's a day when we celebrate all the great things about being online and remind ourselves how we can stay safe online.

Jumpy_frog100

Not everyone is available all the time. It's not okay to put pressure on someone or make them feel guilty if they need to leave a game.

Remember that the age ratings on games are there to help you and your families decide whether you're ready to play them yet.

Someone you live with might give you permission to play on a game, but that doesn't mean everyone else is allowed to or even feels comfortable with the game. It's important to respect other peoples' decisions.

Day_dream_queen
Why aren't you helping me?

Day_dream_queen
Where are you all? Stop running away from me!

Day_dream_queen
Why have you just done that???? We're meant to be on a team and look out for each other!

Day_dream_queen
I can't believe you got me, you are all
 I hate you all. Just you wait until next time. I'll get you all back!

It wasn't nice or respectful of the other players to treat Day_dream_queen like that.

But even if someone has been unkind, or you're feeling angry and upset, it's never the right choice to retaliate by sending a mean message back.

Judo_genie22

Why don't you leave the game

Pioneer10

Yeh, you usually quit anyway 😊

Sometimes what starts as a joke can still really hurt and upset someone. It's important to think about other people's feelings. If someone asks you to stop or you think they are upset it's important to listen and take time to say sorry.

Lightening-duck2

Good game! We always win when we are on a team together 😁

It's important to keep personal information safe online. Even if you have been playing a game with someone for a long time, if you don't know them offline they are still a stranger.

Always tell an adult if a player online asks for your personal information or to meet up.

Then together you could:

- Say no to sharing personal information and move the conversation back to talking about the game
- Decide not to reply at all
- Choose to report, block or unfriend the player.

If someone is being disrespectful you can...

Tell them how you feel or ask them to stop politely

Being respectful online means:

Including people when they want to be included

Listening to other people

Being kind and supportive

Understanding that someone might not want the same things as you

Thinking about how your words and actions make other people feel

Not putting pressure on someone and accepting their boundaries
